Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs of the female system. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseased the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "run-down," "run-out," or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving powers.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve tonic, it is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuritis, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the female system. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapse or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The ladies know of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to use them, and ever since they have grown in favor for reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the "Lafayette Hotel and Surgical Institute," Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Major Using Herpelide on Account of its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpelide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpelide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Madame Diss DeBar Liberated.

Ann O'Delia Diss DeBar, who, under the name of Laura Jackson, was sentenced on December 20, 1901, to seven years' penal servitude for connection with an immoral cult known as the "Theocratic Unity," of which her reputed husband, Theodore Jackson, was the head, has been liberated from Aylesbury, England, prison under ticket of leave, having obtained the maximum reduction of sentence for good behavior.

Mme. Diss DeBar has been known under many names in the United States and Great Britain; but her greatest notoriety was achieved as the perpetrator of a so-called spiritualistic deception by which Luther R. Marsh, of New York, was in his old age stripped of the fortune he had accumulated in the practice of law. Though claiming to be the daughter of King Louis I. of Bavaria and Lola Montez, she was in fact, the daughter of Prof. John C. F. Saloman, once of Washington and later of Kentucky.

She became the wife of Gen. Joseph H. Diss DeBar in the seventies, and later traveled about the country representing herself as the personification of occult powers and the revealer of hidden truths, spiritualistic and other, and in this way, while living in Washington square, New York, she netted Marsh, and by means of alleged spirit materializations and spirit painted pictures so inflated him that he gave her large sums of money and decided to her his home in Madison avenue.

About this time General Diss DeBar left the adventures, who went to live at the Marsh home, and also hired apartments, where she officiated as a priestess of spiritualism and won greater notoriety.

Suit was brought to show her up as an impostor, and she was charged with conspiring to defraud Marsh. Her trial resulted in her conviction and she was sentenced to a term of imprisonment. On her release she went to Europe, then returned to this country, and going to the West got into more difficulties through her representations of bogus spiritualism. Under the name of Vera P. Ava she fell into the hands of the Chicago police, who sent her to the penitentiary at Joliet for two years. Released from that institution she married William J. McGowan in 1895 at Chicago. Mr. McGowan, like Marsh, was a man of wealth, but this did not deter her from the practice of fraud. In 1899 she was run out of New Orleans with Theodore Jackson, whose wife she then said she was.

A year later they turned up in Cape Town, South Africa, where Mme. Diss DeBar called herself Helena and Jackson called himself Horos. Occultism and hypnotic performances were the order there, and one of her South African dupes, a wealthy contractor, gave his money to the woman to establish a colony of brotherly love. Soon afterwards the pair went to London, where they promoted the Theocratic Unity organization, secured in connection with which led to their arrest in September, 1901. The trial, which continued at intervals through three months, developed facts of such a loathsome character that several of the London papers excluded from their columns all reports of the proceedings in court.

Mr. Justice Bigham summed up strongly against the prisoners, saying it was difficult to conceive of more revolting and abominable conduct than that which had been attributed to them. The jury quickly returned a verdict of guilty, whereupon the justice sentenced Jackson to 15 years' penal servitude and his reputed wife to 7 years, penal servitude.

Bank Officers Arrested.

Alexander R. Chisolm, paying teller of the First National Bank, in Birmingham, Ala., was arrested yesterday charged with the embezzlement of $97,000 of the bank's funds. He was held by United States Commissioner R. E. Watson.

During the afternoon W. L. Sims and C. M. Hays, manager and assistant manager of one of the chief stock and cotton brokerage houses in Birmingham, were arrested, charged with aiding and abetting the embezzlement of national bank funds. They were released yesterday evening on bonds.

The shortage at the First National Bank was discovered while Chisolm was on vacation. The bank has a large reserve fund on hand, and it was from this that the amount was taken. There was no regular time for counting the cash in the reserve funds, which accounts for the fact that the shortage was not discovered sooner. It was decided to wait until Chisolm returned. When he stepped from a train yesterday morning, he was confronted by the federal officers and several directors of the bank. He later made a full confession.

W. P. G. Harding, president, said that the bank would not lose the whole

Prof. Tyler, of Amherst college, said recently: "A man can live comfortably without brains; no man ever existed without a digestive system. The dyspeptic is neither faith, hope or charity." Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 601 King Street.

amount, and that the loss would not affect the institution. The bank has a capital of $1,000,000, and a surplus of $400,000.

When Chisolm was arrested $3,000 was taken from his suit case. He was bonded for $30,000. The difference, $84,000, between these amounts and the shortage, has already been taken from the undivided profits account of the bank and charged to profit and loss.

Young Chisolm was one of the most popular young men socially and personally in Birmingham. It is said that nearly all the money embezzled by him was used in speculation in cotton futures, and that his losses have extended over a period of several months. It is said that he traded under an assumed name, and made all his payments for margins in cash.

Returns After 31 Years.

After an unexplained absence of 31 years Prof. Charles H. Frye, former superintendent of the Chicago Normal School, returned Sunday to Chicago. One of his acts upon arriving home was to hand $50,000 to his wife, with the remark "Ask me no questions."

Frye was 31 years old when he disappeared. Since that day no word had been received from him by his wife. He was recognized immediately in spite of his added years and altered appearance. He is said to have made money in the Philippine Islands, where he resided for several years.

His wish that no questions be asked him regarding his wanderings has been respected and he has settled down at home as though nothing had happened.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. A. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have now walked three miles in 15 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price only 50c.
